

Madrid & Barcelona

Spain's unique selling feature is the diversity of its landscape, culture, customs and tradition. This Mediterranean jewel offers a variety of choices for sightseeing, gastronomy, shopping, festivals and special interest programs.

With almost close to 5,000 KM of coastline, Spain is also an ideal honeymoon and water sports destination. Spain has everything to offer, from art lovers to gourmet specialists, from sports buffs to party goers, and people from all age groups. Almost each major city boasts of a theme park.

Visiting Spain is like literally reliving the pages of a history book. Spain has a total of 13 cities declared as World Heritage sites by UNESCO.

Given that Spaniards are always ready to extend their warmth and hospitality to all who come and visit, rest assured that the first visit will make you come back for many more memorable experiences.

4 Nights/5 Days

Madrid - Barcelona

Day 1: Madrid

Arrive at Madrid airport and transfer to hotel.

The rest of the day is at leisure.

Day 2: MADRID-CITY TOUR

Explore this beautiful city in the morning.

Madrid is the capital of Spain and the home of the Royal Family; the parliament; the Prado, Reina Sofia and Thyssen museums and the football team Real Madrid. The city, and Spain in general, is very well known for the nightlife; bars, discos and restaurants; do not even start to get busy until 10 or 11 pm, and for the party hard kind of people the good news is - the bars stay open all night long.

Day 3: MADRID - BARCELONA

After breakfast, travel by train to Barcelona.

On arrival at Barcelona check in to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Day 4: BARCELONA - HOP-ON-HOP-OFF CITY TOUR

Embark upon a Hop-on/Hop-off city tour of Barcelona in the morning. The tour begins at Plaza de Catalunya, there are 2 different routes (west and east route) but both will take you through the Gothic quarter, La Pedrera and Casa Batllo designed by Antoni Gaudi, who is one of the most famous Spanish architects known for his unique designs.

In the evening you can walk through La Rambla, one of the landmarks of Barcelona - it is a street approximately 1.2 kilometres long in central Barcelona and its popular with tourists and locals.

Day 5: END OF TOUR

After breakfast, check out from hotel. Transfer to the airport to board the flight back home.
